Dear
Jennifer,
Kirsten, Jamal
& Kathleen,

Thank you for your condolences in the Home-going of our dear Don. His life was marked with the love of the wonderful people like you, who added tremendous value to every day. Whether with family or friends, singing, golfing, racquetball, painting, construction, dancing, volunteering, in Rotary, church, or attending one of numerous Bible studies or service projects, he was on mission.

Don had a good life. We are thankful he is now in Heaven with his Lord. And he would love to see you there too someday.

Thank you for the lovely card. We are experiencing a GRAND peace in knowing Don is with his Heavenly Father now. your help as his Hospice team was exceptional, and ALL OF US in the family truly appreceate the level of integrity with which you operated.

Sincerely,
The Nicholson
